Greetings and welcome to the Green Room Gazette. I'm your host, BLT's John Myers.

So I'm gonna let you all in on a secret. When you become President at BLT, one of the many things that you become responsible for but they don't tell you about (and there are, oddly enough, a lot of things they don't tell you about) is writing the "Letter from the President" for the Green Room Gazette. And while if I'd thought about it, it wouldn't have been a surprise, I probably would have reconsidered the job offer.

See, here's the secret.....I'm not a writer. Give me a script to learn, a song to sing or a dance-step to fake and I'm good to go. Assign me a term paper, a book report, or an article to write and suddenly I'm less effective than Pete Carroll's decision making. (Sorry, Seahawk Fans.) And usually I'll wait till the last minute. (As our Gazette Editor, Lynne Beautrow will attest.)

And while you would think that after all this time, I'd have some idea what I was doing..... I'm still making it up as I go along.

This is what I do know, though. Since January 1st, your Board of Directors and Volunteers have done the following:

1. Jonathan Perry has yet again directed a fantastic show, Servant of Two Masters
2. Wendy Koepl has yet again put together a fantastic cast for Calendar Girls
3. BLT has yet again hosted Daisy's Madhouse's Will Act 4 Food for the Idaho Foodbank
4. Wendy Koepl and her script Committee have yet again put together an amazing season

And most importantly

5. I got the "Letter from the President" done before Lynne yelled at me..... Yet Again!

'til next time
J

Welcome New Student Club Members!

by Carolyn Schultz

Student Club Director Cheryl Blauer introduced club members at the January membership meeting.

Boise Little Theater welcomed 15 young new members in January – all part of the new BLT Student Club. The brainchild of Cheryl Blauer, the club is up and running, thanks to Cheryl’s hard work over the past year. The goal of the club is simple: to build a new generation of leaders for the theater, and to enhance the education of the student members.

and costuming; and more. Also, qualifying students will have the opportunity and support to apply for scholarships offered by BLT.

In return, the students are asked to volunteer a minimum of 10 hours each year. Plus, they need to maintain good grades to stay in the club.

“My hope is that we build and maintain relationships with the students that will last year-round and not just during the summer program,” said Blauer. “These kids are brilliant and able – lets train them right!”

If you or someone you know is interested in joining the BLT Student Club, visit their Facebook Page at Boise Little Theater Student Club or email BLTstudentclub@gmail.com. You must be between the ages of 12 and 20 to join.
