Greetings and welcome to the Green Room Gazette. I'm your host, BLT's John Myers.

I hope you all got a chance to see Ken Ludwig's Twas the Night before Christmas. The cast and I had a blast putting it on, and we hope you enjoyed it as much as we did.

I personally want to thank Kay Mack and her team for putting together another wonderful Christmas Party! It was great to have everyone get together and kick off the "Christmas Party Season" with such great people. Thanks, Kay!

Squabbles opened January 9th, so come check it out because it's a riot!

Rex's Exes auditions were December 20th and 21st, and they are already in rehearsals.

And on January 31st we will be hosting Will Act 4 Food for Daisy's Madhouse for the Fourth year in a row; definitely come check it out. It's an amazing evening of theater.

Wendy Koepl and her Script committee have finalized next season. I'm incredibly excited for next season, especially the first show of the season for personal and professional reasons. [Come to the membership meeting to hear what the new season is!]

And looking past February we have a board election, a Presidential election, auditions for 2 more shows, the summer show, awards and the Picnic. And that's just the stuff that they tell me about.

Speaking of elections, just a reminder that if you haven't renewed your membership you need to before the end of the January Membership Meeting (January 19th) to vote in Board elections.

I hope everyone had a wonderful holiday season with Family and Friends and that everyone is excited as I am for what 2015 has in store.

'til next time

J

Gabbing with the Green Room Gazette

Barbara Beautrow

Q: How did you first get involved in BLT?

A: Helen Irwin (past president) lived next door. When she found out that I was a theater person, she got me involved in helping write the Green Room Gazette. Then, Don Mummert cast me in my first show, which was Towards Zero by Agatha Christie.

Q: What is your favorite memory at BLT?

A: Working with my daughter, Lynne, from the time she was about age four to the present, ten years later. Seriously, every show I directed or acted in has been so much fun. I feel like I add more people to my "family" with each new show I'm in.

Q: What do you think is unique about BLT? Why?

A: There's always a core of good, hard workers who keep it going. BLT has the feel of success about it.

Q: What should BLT change or keep doing?

A: I think we're in a really good place right now. Just keep picking good shows and good directors, who pick good casts. I also think BLT has a more personal approach to everything. That makes it appealing to the membership as well as to the audiences. We're nice people!
