Greetings and welcome to the Green Room Gazette. I'm your host, BLT's John Myers.

I hope you all got a chance to see Every Christmas Story Ever Told (and then some). The cast and crew had a blast putting it on, and we hope you enjoyed it as much as we did.

I personally want to thank Kay Mack and her team for putting together another wonderful Christmas Party! It was great to have everyone get together and kick off the "Christmas Party Season" with such great people. Thanks, Kay!

Servant of Two Masters opened January 8th, so come check it out because it's a riot!

Calendar Girls auditions were December 13th and 14th and they are already in rehearsals.

And on January 30th we will be hosting Will Act 4 Food for Daisy's Madhouse for the Fifth year in a row; definitely come check it out. It's an amazing evening of theater.

Wendy Koepl and her Script committee are close to finalizing next season.

Looking past February, we will have a board election, a Presidential election, auditions for 2 more shows, the summer show, awards and the Picnic. And that's just the stuff that they tell me about.

Speaking of elections, just a reminder that if you haven't renewed your membership you need to before the end of the January Membership Meeting (January 18th) to vote in Board elections.

I hope everyone had a wonderful holiday season with Family and Friends and that everyone is excited as I am for what 2016 has in store.

'til next time

J

BJ Jefferson

Long-time member BJ Jefferson, 84, passed away on December 15. BJ worked on 105 shows from 1955-2010, working in all aspects of production, as an actress, on props, costumes, sound, set construction and painting, make-up, set dressing, stage crew, assistant stage manager, assistant director, and director. For the theater itself she took on roles in ushering & house managing, ticketing, building & grounds, make-up chair, box office manager, membership chair, hospitality, publicity, and board member. BJ was an important part of making BLT what it is today.

(BJ, center, in a 1972 production of Arsenic and Old Lace)

Everyone is welcome to a Celebration of BJ's life at the theater on Sunday, January 31, at 5 p.m.

Cindy Van Komen-Dean

Cindy was a recent but loved addition to the BLT family. She worked on Inherit the Wind, Harvey, Curtains, Cat on a Hot Tin Roof, Squabbles, and Rex's Exes. We will miss her big smile.

Cindy in Inherit the Wind

An excerpt from her Cindy's obituary in the Statesman tells us "...After becoming an empty nester, she could often be found in the softball/baseball stands cheering on her husband. Also, she traveled many times to Yellowstone, a place she had an affinity for and wished her ashes to be scattered there. Other destinations included Garden Valley, where she enjoyed watching musicals under the mountain sky. She even decided to try her hand at acting/dancing/singing, appearing in several productions put on by Starlight Theater, Boise Little Theater, and Boise Music Week. Fellow thespians described her as very outgoing, talkative, positive, and encouraging to be around."

"In place of flowers, the deceased wished donations to be made in her name to the Joe Posluszny Scholarship."

Calling All Artists!

Cindy Marshall, Principal of Eagle Elementary School of the Arts, is interested in creating contacts with community members who may be interested in volunteering for opportunities with the school. She says, "My long-term goal is to seek out funding for artistic residencies where local artists could work with a particular grade level a few times a year in their artistic area of emphasis (drama, music, visual arts, dance, etc.)." If any members are interested, please feel free to contact Cindy at marshall.cindy@westada.org or (208) 855-4365
