Hello All,

I cannot tell you how excited I am to be in the position that we, as a theater, are in right now. It has been a tremendously long and arduous process to get us here. Indeed, a labor of love. It has been almost a year since we started talking about this COVID thing. I remember wrapping up Leading Ladies and thinking, “This is pretty weird and hopefully we’ll get through this quickly.” Spoilers: I was wrong.

A global pandemic and social unrest caused a lot of deep thinking and re-evaluation of our own core values. We have had the opportunity to look inside ourselves, and at the people and things that we hold dear. Art, as an industry, has been deeply affected by the financial impact of closure and quarantine. I will admit, I wasn’t sure how we would get through this as a small, local non-profit.

Yet, with the support of some outstanding people, we came up with ways to safely create. Our first ever Cabernet Cabaret in September brought in over $7000 and we learned some very important lessons on how to make theater in a virtual space. So, with Christmas Cab Cab, we increased the overall production value and number of acts. I want to give a big shout out to all the acts that auditioned and performed in both cabarets. I cannot thank Nichole and Jared Stull enough for hosting Christmas Cab Cab. I will not thank Facebook for its censoring- well, actually, I am all for the protection of artists and their intellectual property. I just wish coordinating the rights we pay for through ASCAP with Facebook was better. Again, lessons learned. Still, the two shows brought in almost $10,000. Whew!

These accomplishments would not have been possible without the generosity of people who gave their time, talents, insights, and donations. Thank you all so very much.

Right now, we are producing two new shows to be live-streamed. You will be able to watch “Vintage Hitchcock: A Live Radio Play” by Joe Landry on February 5 and 6 at 8 pm and “Five Women Wearing the Same Dress” by Alan Ball on March 19 and 20 at 8 pm. Be on the lookout for more information on how to watch these live shows with your friends and family from the comfort (and safety) of your own home.

And finally, we are approaching voting season here at Boise Little Theater. It is time to make choices about what direction you want BLT to go in the coming year. The nominating committee will be putting forth a list of nominees in February so you can vote in March. Remember, you must be a current member by the end of the Membership Meeting on January 18 in order to serve on a committee, on our board, or vote in the coming election. Please visit our website or call our box office to update your membership so your voice will be heard.

‘Til next time.

Darin

COMING IN FEBRUARY! STREAMING LIVE!

Spies, murder, love, and other trademarks of Alfred Hitchcock come to life in the style of a 1940's radio broadcast of the master of suspense's earlier films. A triple feature, complete with vintage commercials, that recreates a daring train chase, a serial killer's ominous presence, and a devastating explosion through the magic of live sound effects and musical underscoring. Spooky & exciting! We will have two live streamed shows that will be on the Broadway On Demand platform. One on Feb

5 at 8pm and the next on Feb 6 at 8pm. There will be two ticket pricing levels: $13 for an individual and $20 for a household. Since this is not one of our regularly scheduled season shows, it is not included in your season tickets or flex-passes. You won't want to miss this "FIRST!" See how a 1940s radio show was performed, See VINTAGE HITCHCOCK on February 5 or 6 at 8:00 pm. Pre-order your tickets now!
