January 16, 17, 18, 21, 22, 23, 24, 2004

THE REAL INSPECTOR HOUND and AFTER MAGRITTE

Two One Act Plays By Tom Stoppard

Produced by special arrangement with Samuel French Co., Inc.

ABOUT THE DIRECTOR

Kevin R. Kimsey.....Director: Kevin has been on the stage for just over 30 years (he says it started in the womb) and has been involved in every aspect of the theater including set design/construction, costumes, make-up, lights, sound, stage managing and a little directing. He has served on the Board of Directors here at BLT as well as Stage Coach Theatre and is currently the Artistic Director with Stage Coach. He has performed for at least 6 different theater companies in the Treasure Valley alone (including Ballet Idaho) with his first appearance here at BLT in 1990. Most recently, Kevin appeared in Fool for Love with CAN-ACT and performed the title role in Dracula with Knock 'Em Dead. He has worked in film, radio, some television and took his first (and last) skydiving jump in September. He pays his mortgage as the Director of Marketing for Computrol, Inc. in Meridian. His three children (Brandon, Ryan and Katie) and the Great Dane (Penelope) keep him busy when he's not in one of the local theaters. "This great cast has made this so easy for me.....thank you so much!!!"

ABOUT THE CAST

AFTER MAGRITTE

Scene Setting: A Flat in London

CAST IN ORDER OF APPEARANCE

HARRIS.....Steve Martin: This is Steve's third turn on the BLT stage, having appeared in Man for All Seasons and Noises Off. He has performed in numerous plays for Spontaneous Productions, notably The Laramie Project and Rocky Horror Show. By day, Steve is a newspaper journalist and mate to his loving partner of seven years, Jim. He thanks director Kevin Kimsey for the opportunity to add the antics of Stoppard to his theater resume'.

Thelma.....Becky Jaynes: Becky has spent the past two years acting in various community theaters. Though BLT was the location of her first Boise theater debut playing Margaret in Man for All Seasons, she has also appeared in Not Now, Darling, stage managed for Sleuth, performed as May in CAN-ACT's production of Fool for Love and as Nurse Kelly in Knock 'Em Dead's production of Harvey. Knock 'Em Dead's recent production of Dracula provided an opportunity for Becky to be Assistant Director as well as perform the role of Lucy. She is thrilled to be acting at BLT again, as this venue has always provided her with rewarding experiences and the ability to work with so many wonderful people.

MOTHER.....Marlena Schuricht: Marlena is THRILLED to be performing at BLT again, having appeared as Mother in Barefoot in the Park earlier this season. Marlena really hopes these "mature" roles represent casting against type, but after so many hours contemplating her wrinkles, she says a Botox appointment may be in her future anyway. In her spare time, Marlana loves to think about working out, watch old movies, turn pens on the lathe, and take tub lessons.....well, she may give that last one up. Her hair is now 54" long

HOLMES.....Lora Volkert: This is Lora's first time on the BLT stage. She has appeared in You Can't Take it With You and Rebecca at CAN-ACT in Nampa and The Merchant of Venice at the Actor's Guild. Her recent offstage pursuits include writing escaped alligator stories for the Idaho Press-Tribune and carving the giant styrofoam horses on display in downtown Nampa.

FOOTE.....Jim Parrish: With no formal acting training and a singing voice that would embarrass a braying donkey, Jim's unlikely road to appearing in the current BLT production of After Magritte began by accident in 1991 when he accompanied a friend to an audition of The Illustrious Onion Skin Players in Ontario, Oregon. A recent relocation to Boise (one step ahead of the tar, feathers and rail offered by certain citizens living along the Idaho/Oregon border) has proven to be very beneficial as it has opened a whole new vista of opportunities for involvement with community theater. After Magritte is Jim's first production with BLT but hopes with the aid of constant identity changes to confuse the directorial staff, this will not be his last.

THE REAL INSPECTOR HOUND

Scene Setting: Muldoon Manor out on the moors of England

CAST IN ORDER OF APPEARANCE

BIRDBOOT.....Don Walker: Don has been a regular both on stage and behind the scenes since he was dragged into Boise Little Theater, (kicking and screaming), in 1979. After his first show, the theater community has been unable to get rid of him. He has appeared in shows for Boise Little Theater, Boise Opera, Knock 'Em Dead, BSU Theater Department and Stage Coach Theatre. Don's last roles include Stage Coach Theatre's My Husband's Wild Desires Almost Drove Me Mad (you can't forget the red dress.....) and Laughter on the 23rd Floor. Don's last on-stage appearance at BLT was as Lieutenant Colonel Jessup in A Few Good Men.

MOON.....Jeff Thomson: Jeff's last appearance on the Boise Little stage was in Don't Dress for Dinner. Other BLT productions have included Out of Sight, Out of Murder, Prescription Murder, Dark Comedy, Squabbles, Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead (another Stoppard play) and Look Homeward Angel. He has also performed for Stage Coach, BSU and Boise Music Week. His last production was another Kevin Kimsey directed play, Out of Order, where he played Mr. Willey (that's Dick Willey to his friends, if you know what I mean.....).

BODY.....Ryan Kimsey: This is Ryan's first appearance at BLT although he's been striking sets here with his dad since he was old enough to carry a can of screws. He is a sophomore at Borah High School where he plays football as well as being in the theater department (go figure).

MRS. DRUDGE.....Saraphina Rodriguez: This is Sarafina's first show with Boise Little Theater. You may have seen her on stage at Knock 'Em Dead. In the past five years she has done several productions including Grease, Brigadoon, Nunsense, and Harvey. Her passion for the performing arts also extends through playing the bass guitar in her former band the Dirties. "It's the roar of the grease paint, and the smell of the crowd."

SIMON.....Rob Tromp: Rob is pleased to be making his first appearance in Boise with BLT, having recently moved here from Colorado late last year. He has numerous stage, screen and voiceover credits. Recent work includes a reading of Tom Sawyer for www.dvdaudiobooks.com.

FELICITY.....Deanna McMahon: This show marks Deanna's third performance in a BLT production. She was last seen on our stage as the secretary, Miss Tiptdale in last spring's production of Not Now, Darling. She has performed in shows with Stage Coach Theatre, The Boise Actor's Guild, Spontaneous Production and as Rita in CAN-ACT's production of Educating Rita for which Deanna won a best actress award. She is excited and happy to be working with Kevin once again, as with many other familiar cast members.

CYNTHIA.....Kathy Petersen: Kathy grew up doing theater in the California Bay Area. She moved to Boise in 1986 and spent the next sixteen years raising her five children. She returned to the stage in 2002 with Boise Music Week's production of Oliver! and then BLT's Not Now, Darling. She loves acting and enjoys her association with Boise Little Theater and it's people INSPECTOR HOUND.....Randall Webster: Randall is happy to make his BLT debut working with Kevin and so many friends, old and new. He is a veteran of 25 years of community theater, recently appearing in productions of The Merchant of Venice, Educating Rita, Angel Street, Greater Tuna, The Foreigner, Much Ado About Nothing, Streetcar Named Desire and Fool For Love. Randall would like to thank BLT for the opportunity to plug The Odd Couple which he will be directing for CAN-ACT in Nampa next March (good seats are still available).

MAGNUS.....Tom Poremba: This is Tom's second appearance at Boise Little Theater. He got his foot in the door – so to speak – in Barefoot in the Park earlier this season where he portrayed the Lord and Taylor delivery man. He was recently in The Bad Seed at The Actor's Guild along with his wife Louise. He also appeared in Romantic Comedy this past summer at Stage Coach Theatre which was his first time working on stage with his wife. He enjoys working with his new cast mates and thanks Kevin for selecting him for this role. He also wishes to thank all the patrons and hopes you enjoy the show.
